

A wedding couple is shown in a romantic embrace, kissing. The bride is wearing a white gown and veil, and the groom is in a dark suit with white gloves. They are positioned in front of a rustic stone fireplace mantel. A large, lush arrangement of white roses and greenery is placed on the mantel behind them. The background consists of tall, thin trees, suggesting a forest or park setting. The overall lighting is soft and warm, typical of late afternoon or early morning.
